MACK & MABEL

Book by Michael Stewart Music and lyrics by Jerry Herman
Revised by Francine Pascal
Original New York production directed and choreographed

An amateur production by arrangement with Samuel French Ltd.

The great Hollywood comic director, Mack Sennett, reminisces about his career from the sound stage of the studios he once dominated. It is 1938, and the days of the silent film are over, effectively ending Sennett's career.

In a series of flashbacks, Sennett relates the glory days of the Keystone Studios from 1911, when he discovered Mabel Normand, star of dozens of his early "two-reelers", through his invention of the Bathing Beauties and Keystone Cops to Mabel's untimely death in 1930.

Memorable songs, pathos and slapstick comedy mark this as one of the best musicals of recent times.

Tickets, priced £12.00 Adults and £10.00 Concessions from RDG Box Office 01784 462358, by email: keith@thedorchester.freeserve.co.uk, Rhoda McGaw Box Office 0870 060 6645, or by post using the form below.
